DIVERSE MINDS

NORTH STATE JOURNAL 2019

Submission Guidelines

The Iversen Wellness & Recovery Center invites any Northern California community member who lives with or helps others with mental health challenges to submit your original art or written work to be included in the Diverse Minds North State Journal 2019!

Types of submissions can include (but are not limited to): poetry, short stories, vignettes, paintings, drawings, graphic design, or photography. Works may be fiction or non-fiction, color or black-and-white. Keep in mind that print versions of the Journal will be in black-and-white.

Art submissions for the Journal will be considered for display during the celebration and release of the Journal. Contributors will be contacted individually if their entries are selected.

Submissions must not include inappropriate, offensive, or libelous material.

Submissions must be original, the sole work of the artist or author who is submitting the piece.

Works must also have not been previously published.

Submissions accepted by email at: iversen@nvcss.org

Files must be sent in the following formats:

Art/Images: .png, .jpg, or .pdf

Written works: .rtf or .doc

IMPORTANT: The Publishing Release and Submission Form must be electronically signed and submitted with the entry. Submissions without these forms will not be accepted.

Special accommodations can be made if necessary.*

*Contact the Iversen Center at (530)879-3311.

Each contributor may submit up to five submissions total (art and writing).

Written submissions must not exceed 1,200 words for stories or prose, or 100 lines for poetry. Poetry line breaks must be clearly identified.

Submission does not guarantee publication in the book. Iversen Center reserves the right to limit the number of entries allowed in the final draft of the publication. Final decisions will be made by the Iversen Wellness & Recovery Center editorial board/staff.

All entries must be received by July 5, 2019.
